The Democratic National Convention.

SPECULATIONS ABOUT THE CANDIDATES—THE LUCKY MAN—PROMINENT POLITICIANS IN NEW YORK—HORACE GREELEY ON THE COMING MAN.

The New York papers are full of facts and speculations concerning the National Democratic Convention which meets on the 4th of July in New York city. The various delegations have already chosen their "headquarters." South Carolina, Georgia, and Connecticut are at the Chandler House. Mississippi and New Hampshire consort at the Everett House. Maryland is at the New York Hotel, and ware North Carolina, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Kentucky. Alabama is at the St. Nicholas, Missouri at the Spingler House, Tennessee at the St. Nicholas, and West Virginia at the Fifth Avenue. The crowd arriving and expected is so great that the hotel-keepers have "shut down" on any engagements of rooms in advance. The New York World gives us some interesting items, which we copy below:

SPECULATIONS ABOUT THE CANDIDATES.

The delegates to the National Convention from the Pacific States are the first on the field of action. The States of California, Nevada, and Oregon are fully represented, and are holding forth at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Those from the two first-named States are pressing with great earnestness the name of Judge Stephen J. Field, of the Supreme Court, for President. Mr. Field was elected to the Supreme Court of California by the Democrats, and was a member of that court when he was appointed by Mr. Lincoln to a judgeship of the Supreme Court of the United States. His friends claim that he has always been a Democrat, and the real mover in the Supreme Court which secured the decision declaring the military trial of civilians in Indiana unconstitutional; and that in other matters before that court he has been equally out spoken and decided against Radicalism. They are making a very strong push for him. Mr. Field's friends opened rooms on Saturday at the Worth House, facing the Worth monument on Twenty-fifth street at the junction of Broadway and Fifth avenue, and are now engaged in endeavoring to convince the different delegations as they arrive that he is the man for them to nominate at this time.

A few of the leading men of the Western delegations have also arrived. These are principally from Michigan, Illinois, and Missouri. They are quietly locking the field over, and gathering the sentiment of the Democracy, with a view of being better able to advise with their delegations as they arrive. Contrary to the assertions of our opponents, these men do not come here determined to secure the nomination of a certain candidate or break up the Convention. There is but one sentiment manifested thus far by the men who have reached here from the Western States, and that is to nominate the strongest man, let him be whom he may. The only thing that has given any other appearance during the past week has been the action of some of the correspondents of Ohio papers, who are sending to those journals their canards, started by Radicals for mischief, with the view of making Pendleton's friends believe that there is to be foul play, and thus get them to commit some rash act. This is now what the Radicals are trying to do, and the correspondents of some of the Ohio papers, in Pendleton's interest, have bitten at this bait of the Radicals, and are trying to work up the feeling in Ohio, which the Radicals are so anxious should be. Fortunately, when the delegations in his favor arrive here they will readily discover that all these stories are fabrications. Their circulation in the way that they are, will, however, injure the candidates pressed by those who countenance such stories. This is the only source from which any inharmonious sounds have been uttered as yet, and these are but mere ripples on the surface.

By the middle of the present week there will be a majority of the delegations in town and quartered at the hotels, where rooms have been engaged in advance. The principal headquarters of delegations will be at the Fifth Avenue, St. Nicholas, Metropolitan, Everett, and Astor House. Some of the minor delegations will, however, be at other hotels in different sections of the city. The soldiers and sailors have selected the Moffat House for their headquarters; the Keystone Club at the St. Cloud Hotel, corner of Broadway and Forty-second street; while the delegation from the Pacific States will hold forth at 28 Bond street.

THE FORTUNATE MAN.

There is, however, a more general impression that Senator Hendricks will be the fortunate man, but in the absence of the delegates, nothing positive can be ascertained. Hendricks appears to be the second choice of more than any other person. The Chase movement has gained ground with the rank and file of the party, but it is doubtful if it has with the leaders. The young men of the party are for him to a much greater extent than the old stagers of the Democracy. There are many who still have strong hopes of his nomination, and yet there are others who state with great positiveness that he will not get a vote in the Convention. The friends of General Hancock still manifest great confidence that he will be nominated. The friends of Pendleton profess to believe that Hancock is the man whom they have got to pit against, and that he is the next strong man to their favorite. With this belief, they are directing their attacks upon the operations of Hancock's friends, and endeavoring to show that he is the man who will be nominated if Pendleton is not.

In reference to Governor Seymour, there is a discrepancy in the views of the politicians. Since his speech, one class assert that he is now a candidate, and that his speech will nominate him; but in direct opposition to this it is asserted that Mr. Seymour stated to his intimate personal friends while in this city that he was not a candidate, and did not desire the nomination. It is now generally conceded that he will be the permanent president of the convention.

PROMINENT MEN IN THE CITY.

In addition to these, many leading politicians, and their name is legion, from different States are already, or will be in a few days, in town. Thus Judge Field and friends have their headquarters at the Worth House. Many prominent politicians from Maine are at the St. Nicholas. Judge Blair and party, from Washington; Governor English and friends, of Connecticut; and Hon. G. W. Cass and friends, Pittsburg, are also at the St. Nicholas for the Convention. Ex-Governor Magoffin, Colonel Gibson, Governor Stevenson, and J. Stoddart Johnson, of Kentucky; Hon. Montgomery Blair, of Maryland, and Hon. Isaac E. Heister, of Pennsylvania, are at the New York Hotel.

Chief Justice Chase, of Washington, and Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, it is said, will be at St. Cloud Hotel. Judge Gordon and Judge Reed, of Tennessee, are at Power's Hotel. Nor does that even exhaust the list which could be given of notables whom the Convention will call to New York. Sufficient, however, has been cited to show that the Democratic Convention of 1868 will rank as one of the most important ever held in the country, and that with such material success is a foregone conclusion.

THE RADICAL VIEW OF THE CANDIDATES.

The Tribune doesn't think the Convention will get through its business before next Tuesday. It says of the candidates:

The Chase movement has developed new strength here within the last few days, and many of the cooler heads incline to support the Chief Justice and get out of the Copperhead rut; but we still think Chase's name, after being used to kill Pendleton's prospects, will be dropped, and that a third candidate—probably Hendricks, possibly Hancock—will be brought forward with success. A clique of our New York wire workers are laying pipe for Seymour, but to no purpose. If any eastern man should be nominated, it is more likely to be Governor English, of Connecticut. All is guess work as yet; but we consider Hendricks against the field about an even chance. The Chase movement—which at one time promised success—has been blasted by the breath of the Southern Bourbons.

PREFERENCES OF SOUTHERN DELEGATES.

A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette, of yesterday, says:

"Delegates from the Southern and Southwestern States are pouring in here en route for New York. They are almost without exception for either Pendleton or Hancock. The Kentucky delegation is also here, and has had a long pow with General Frank Blair. It is said here that Kentucky will vote for Blair on the first and second ballots. The Virginia delegates are also here. Gov. McMullin, who is one of the Virginia delegates, says it is extremely doubtful if the Southern men vote in the Convention. The idea of some seems to be that the South should take the candidate on whom the East and the West may unite."

UNHAPPY ARKANSAS.—The so-called Legislature of Arkansas is still in session at Little Rock, and, from all accounts, a more pestilential, ignorant, villainous, vindictive and venomous crew could not be assembled if every prison in the civilized world were to contribute its vilest inmates for the purpose. The only member that has shown any sign of intelligence or honesty is a negro by the name of Grey. As for the speaker of the House, his stultiloquy is simply nauseating, while some of his nefarious schemes would put a Jeffreys to the blush. A specimen of their legislation is found in the following precious act of what they call "laws of the State of Arkansas:"

An act to be entitled "an act to define the qualifications of jurors."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas:

Sec. I. That all qualified electors shall be qualified to sit on any jury.

Sec. II. Be it further enacted, That no person who is not a qualified elector shall sit on any jury.

Sec. III. Be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act be, and the same is, hereby repealed.

Sec. IV. Be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect and be enforced from and after its passage.

The Times announces, in a very matter-of-fact way and with no suspicion of satire, that one of the recently-elected United States Senators from Florida was only last spring chosen President of the Iowa State Agricultural College. It is presumed, therefore, that the time of this collegiate carpet-bagger will be directed and devoted to representing Florida in the United States Senate, and teaching the young agricultural idea how to shoot prairie chickens in Iowa. It is doubtful if there is even one of the Senators and Representatives to be admitted to Congress under the Omnibus bill who does not claim a residence and citizenship in some Northern State, while the majority of the carpet-bagging Congressmen know nothing even of the geography of the States which they assume to represent. Will they send their washing "home" to Vermont, Iowa, Ohio, and other States where their families reside? "Representing" a State in which the entire property interest of the Representative consists in the beggarly contents of his carpet-bag, is understood to be the latest phase of "guaranteeing a Republican form of government to every (Southern) State." It is to be hoped that the new Senators and Representatives will not undertake to draw mileage to and from both States which they represent and those in which they reside.—N. Y. World.

GOV. WORTH'S PROTEST.

We publish, below, the admirable Protest of Gov. Worth, on surrendering the office of Governor of the State to Mr. Holden, the Provisional appointee of Gen. Canby. In making this protest, Gov. Worth has been influenced by no captious spirit. He has acted, as during his entire excellent administration, solely from convictions of duty, and in the interests of the Constitutional electors of North Carolina. Our people will thank him for raising a point, which will be of the most vital practical importance in the subsequent developments that must spring out of the usurpations of Congress in this matter of "Reconstruction."

We deem this a fitting place to remark, that no man, who has filled the Executive chair of North Carolina, has more entitled himself to the confidence and regard of her true people, than JONATHAN WORTH. Under circumstances of singular delicacy, complication and embarrassment, he has uniformly stood manfully up for the rights, the honor and the dignity of the State. He has never yielded an inch, beyond what was absolutely imperative, to the encroachments of unconstitutional aggression. The unwritten, and as yet generally unknown, details of his administration, when published, as they must be, at some future day, will place him before the people in a light which will still further command their approbation and esteem.

It is, perhaps, useless to speculate upon the considerations, which produced so sudden a change in the mind of the District Commander, as to cause him to modify his first order providing for the inauguration of the civil government. There is no accounting for the vagaries of military caprice, especially when that caprice is the result of an utter ignorance of law and of usage in civil affairs. If Gen. Canby's object was to avoid the awkward dilemma, in which he placed himself, by the original order, of establishing a premature civil government, for which he had no shadow of warrant, in any legislation of Congress, he has, to use a vulgarism, "jumped out of the frying pan into the fire." For he is now placed in the attitude of having, by an imperial flourish of the sword, rescinded the Reconstruction acts themselves, in that he has allowed a Provisional officer to qualify, without taking the test oath, which is especially commanded to be taken in all cases, so long as the State government continues to be simply provisional, and before the ratification of the Howard amendment!

Mr. Holden, himself, is made, by Gen. Canby's boggling proceedings, to occupy a singularly ungraceful position, though it is not more inconsistent than the whole tenor of his public life. As Provisional Governor of North Carolina, appointed by President Johnson, in 1865, he declared, in his first message to the Convention, that, except as to the abolition of slavery, "North Carolina's existence as a State, and her rights as a State, have undergone NO CHANGE." By now qualifying as the Provisional Governor of the Military and of Congress, he denies, as Gov. Worth very pithily suggests, the validity and legality of the very State government to which he gave his solemn official attestation, when he was a good Johnson man, and when he declared, (in the message above referred to) that the policy of the President was "as broad, as liberal and as just as the Constitution itself!" Oh! Provisional Governor Holden!

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, July 1st, 1868.

GOV. W. W. HOLDEN, RALEIGH, N. C.:

Sir:—Yesterday morning, I was verbally notified by Chief Justice Pearson, that, in obedience to a telegram from Gen. Canby, he would, to-day, at 10 A. M., administer to you the oaths required preliminary to your entering upon the discharge of the duties of Civil Governor of the State; and that, thereupon, you would demand possession of my office.

I intimated to the Judge my opinion that such proceeding was premature, even under the reconstruction legislation of Congress, and that I should probably decline to surrender the office to you.

At sun down, yesterday evening, I received from Col. Williams, Commandant of this Military Post, an extract from the General Orders, No. 120, of General Canby, as follows:

"HEAD QU'RS 2ND MIL. DIS.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 20th, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 120.

[EXTRACT.]

To facilitate the organization of the new State Governments, the following appointments are made: To be Governor of North Carolina, W. W. Holden, Governor elect, vice Jonathan Worth, removed; to be Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, Tod R. Caldwell, Lieutenant Governor elect, to fill an original vacancy—to take effect July 1st, 1868, on the meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina."

I do not recognize the validity of the late election, under which you, and those co-operating with you, claim to be invested with the civil government of the State. You have no evidence of your election, save the certificate of a Major General of the United States Army.

I regard all of you, as, in effect, appointees of the Military power of the United States, and not as "deriving your powers from the consent of those you claim to govern."—Knowing, however, that you are backed by Military force here, which I could not resist, if I would, I do not deem it necessary to offer a futile opposition, but vacate the office, without the ceremony of actual eviction, offering no further opposition than this my protest.

I would submit to actual expulsion, in order to bring before the Supreme Court of the United States the question as to the constitutionality of the legislation under which you claim to be the rightful Governor of the State, if the past action of that tribunal furnished any hope of a speedy trial.

I surrender the office to you under what I deem Military duress, without stopping, as the occasion would well justify, to comment upon the singular coincidence, that the present State Government is surrendered, as without legality, to him, whose own official sanction, but three years ago, declared it valid

I am, Very Respectfully,
JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

THE LEGISLATURE, YESTERDAY.

We do not know that anything was done in either House of the Legislature, (now in session in the Capitol, by authority of Congress,) on yesterday, that requires any special notice at our hands, beyond the fact that the Howard amendment was ratified in the "House of Representatives."

Resolutions were offered, in each House, looking, virtually, to the invocation of the "clemency" of Congress in removing the disabilities of all North Carolinians. Col. Sinclair and Mr. Pou, in the House, and Mr. Wynne, in the Senate, all Republicans, exhibited a spirit of liberality, it will be perceived, on this question, but Mr. Abbott, with the intolerance characteristic of the carpet-bag wing of the party, opposed the proposition, in the House, as did Forkner, of Surry, who represents the Holden-ally branch of the Abbottifaction, in the Senate. The counsels of the fusionists have thus far prevailed—thereby affording another illustration of the already patent fact that the malignant star is in the ascendant.

The failure of the House to elect its Doorkeepers and the other subordinate officers is owing to the fact that the caucus, on Wednesday night, failed to agree upon a choice. The indications of a disposition to refuse the negroes even a little part of the large share of the spoils, to which, from a Radical stand point, they are entitled, is creating quite a sensation in the colored camp. It is as we have said: The Radicals, having got all they want out of the negroes for the present, will have no further use for them,—until another election.

P. S. The House did nothing at its afternoon session.

In the Senate, the 14th. Article (Howard Amendment) was taken up and passed, —so that it is now, virtually, a part of the Constitution. Mr. Robbins, the Senator from Rowan and Davie, [and one of the rising men of North Carolina,] made a very able and eloquent speech in explanation of his vote against the ratification of the Article. We hope to have the pleasure of publishing his remarks.

TERMS OF THE JUDGES.

It will be remembered that Sec. 26, Art. IV, of the new Constitution provides that "the Judges of the Superior Courts, elected at the first election under this Constitution, shall, after their election, under the superintendence of the Justices of the Supreme Court, be divided, by lot, into two equal classes, one of which shall hold office for four years, the other for eight years."

The drawing accordingly took place on yesterday. Judges Mitchell, Starbuck, Watts, Jones, Henry and Cannon drew the eight year terms, and Judges Buxton, Thomas, Pool, Logan, Russell and Tourgee drew the four year terms.

Personally, we could wish the entire bench good health and long lives, but as the scalawags and carpet baggers have forced upon the people an elective Judiciary, we feel compelled to advise at least seven or eight of the new Judges to do themselves, and their country, the justice to resign forthwith, and give place to men who are better qualified for the responsible positions.

PENSIONED NEWSPAPERS.—Senator Sherman, of Ohio, seems disposed to investigate some of the enormous frauds now being perpetrated upon the government. He charges that the Daily Chronicle and Evening Star, of Washington city, two violent Radical papers, upon the plea that they are entitled to the government advertising, are in the habit of publishing government or official advertisements, wherever found, although their circulation could not reach the points interested. For instance, they published advertisements for sod to be put on a Fort in New Mexico, provisions to be supplied in Utah, post routes in Arizona, &c. These two newspapers had charged the government $1500 each for publishing the laws, when the rate fixed by law to other papers was $315! Senator Cameron charged that these two papers had charged the government, for work and advertising, $40,000, each, for the year!

We do not read the two pensioned papers in North Carolina, the Standard and Asheville Pioneer, in which, under the strange ruling of Judge Brooks and the authority to do the government printing, advertisements, &c., are published, which never reach the eyes of the parties concerned. Where the government fixes a uniform and proper rate for advertising, over charging, to which Mr. Sherman alludes, can always be avoided or detected.

WE SUBMIT to philologists a curious question: What does Gen. Canby mean, in his late order, by the expression, an "original vacancy?" Here is a field for the display of Fred's genius.

IMPEACHMENT.—It is understood that the new impeachment articles and speech of Thad. Stevens are already in type, and that he will introduce them in a few days.

SUCH IS RADICALISM.—A white Union soldier, who may have fought for the old flag from the beginning to the end of the war, presenting himself for registry in Arkansas, or Virginia, would be required to take an oath that he accepted the civil and political equality of all men, without distinction of color. If he has a spark of pride left, which tells he is superior to the brutal and semi barbarous negro just out of slavery, he will refuse such an offer; then, notwithstanding all his services and sacrifices, he is disfranchised. Such is Radicalism. How many brave white soldiers will consent to be placed on a level with the negro?

Hon. Reverdy Johnson will resign his seat in the Senate about the 10th of July, and will leave for the Court of St. James on or about the 1st of August.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

"HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES."

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, July 1, 1867.

In accordance with adjournment, the House was called to order at 4 o'clock.

The Journal of the morning was read and adopted.

Mr. Ellis moved that the House do now adjourn until 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow morning, in respect to the memory of the late E. B. Freeman.

The question on the adjournment was put. The Chair was unable to decide.

A division was called for, and the motion was lost, on account of a quorum not voting.

Mr. Abbott said that the business of the House could be transacted in half an hour, and that would give the members who desired to attend the funeral an opportunity to do so.

Mr. Carpenter offered a resolution, adopting the rules of order of the late Convention, until the House could frame a set. Carried.

Mr. Abbott gave notice that he would introduce, to-morrow, a bill to incorporate the "Cumberland and Bladen Railroad."

Mr. Seymour moved a joint resolution, adopting the 14th. Article of the Constitution of the United States, known as the Howard amendment.

Mr. Hednett arose to a point of order, stating that the House was not fully organized, and, therefore, could not pass any acts of a legislative character.

The Chair decided that the point was well taken.

Mr. Laffin renewed the motion to adjourn, and, after some further objection, the House adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, July 2d., 1868.

The Senate met according to adjournment, at 11 o'clock.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

The President announced the presentation of credentials in order. When the names of Messrs. Brown, McLaughlin and Osborne were called, there was no response —neither of them being present.

Mr. Turner, of Orange, arose to a question of privilege, but the Chair refused to recognize him.

The Senate then went into the election of Principal Clerk.

T. A. Byrnes was put in nomination by A. H. Galloway, (negro,) and, there being no opposition, he was declared elected.

J. C. L. Harris was nominated for Reading Clerk, and was elected without opposition.

The Senate then proceeded to the election of Principal Doorkeeper, when J. T. Ball, of Wake, was nominated and elected.

The Senate proceeded to elect an Assistant Doorkeeper, when —— Gibble, (negro,) of Carteret, being the only nominee, was declared elected.

A message was received from the House, announcing its organization, and proposing to raise a joint Committee to wait upon the Governor and to inform him of the organization of the General Assembly, and its readiness to receive any communication he was ready to make. The Senate concurred and the Chair appointed Messrs. Lassiter and Rich, on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, moved that the rules of the Senate of 1866-67 be the rules of this body for the present.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) desired to know if the gentleman wished to exclude the colored delegates. Mr. Jones disclaimed such intention,

When, on motion, the rules of the late "Constitutional Convention" were then adopted, as far as they are applicable.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, offered a resolution proposing that the credentials of the Senators elect, which were laid on the table, on yesterday, be taken up and the status of those Senators be decided at once.

The Chair decided that the resolution must lie over under the rules.

Mr. Robbins moved that the rules be suspended, in order to take up the resolution, and urged it in a brief, but very forcible speech.

The Chair decided that the Senate had no power to suspend the rules, without previous notice.

Mr. Robbins appealed from the decision of the Chair, and the Chair was sustained.

On motion, a Committee of five was appointed to investigate the claims of those Senators, whose credentials were laid on the table, on yesterday.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Winstead, Moore, Rich, Robbins and Barrow the Committee,—four Radicals to one Conservative.

A Committee was appointed to prepare rules of order for the Senate.

A resolution, offered by Mr. Barrow, of Northampton, adopting the Howard amendment, and a substitute offered by Mr. Moore, of Carteret, were laid over, under the rules.

A Joint Committee on rules of order for both Houses, on motion of Mr. Sweet, of Craven, was raised.

Mr. Robbins moved that the President of the Senate of North Carolina, by telegram, petition the Congress of the United States to remove the disabilities of all parties elected by the people in the late election.

Mr. Wynne, of Franklin, seconded the motion.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved to amend the motion, so as to read, "all loyal parties."

Mr. Robbins desired Mr. Moore to explain. He did not object to the word loyal, if it meant something, or was confined to its legitimate meaning.

Mr. M. withdrew his motion and moved that the removal of disabilities be confined to those who will support the reconstruction acts.

Mr. Etheridge moved to insert "did support," instead of "will support," when, on motion of Mr. Forkner, of Surry, the whole matter was laid on the table.

Mr. Barrow gave notice of his intention, on to-morrow, to take up the resolution adopting the Howard Amendment.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a brief message from Gov. Holden. He congratulated the General Assembly upon the restoration of the State and advised the immediate adoption of the Howard Amendment. Ordered to be printed.

After various propositions, the Senate adjourned till 4 o'clock, P. M.

"HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES."

THURSDAY, July 2, 1868.

House called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Ashley.

Journal of yesterday afternoon read and approved.

Mr. Justice, of Henderson, whose disabilities were recently removed, was allowed to qualify.

Messrs. Rhodes, of Wayne, and Blair, of Randolph, also appeared and took their seats.

Mr. Pou gave notice that he would offer a resolution, to-morrow, petitioning Congress, to remove the disabilities imposed by the 14th. Article, from all citizens of the State.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (negro,) offered a resolution, raising a Committee of seven—one from each Congressional District in the State—to consider a plan to relieve the suffering poor, and farmers who have no means to finish their crops. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Estes said that, as the House had no intimation of the organization of the Senate, he moved that a recess until 12 o'clock be taken.

The motion was put and carried.

At 12 o'clock, the Speaker resumed his seat and called the House to order.

A message from the Senate was received, concurring in the resolution appointing a Joint Committee to wait on the Governor.

Also, one informing the House of their organization.

The Chair appointed as the Committee, on the part of the House, to wait on the Governor, Messrs. Estes, Jarvis and Williams.

The Chair, in accordance with J. H. Harris' resolution, to raise a Committee of 7,—one from each Congressional District—appointed the following: Messrs. Stilly, of the 1st.; Ames, of the 2d.; Procter, of the 3d.; Harris, of the 4th.; Horney, of the 5th.; Ellis, of the 6th.; and Bowman, of the 7th.

By Mr. Stilly: A resolution appointing a Committee of 3 to prepare rules of order for the government of the House.

Adopted, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Abbott, Durham, Stilly, Leary, (negro,) and Laflin.

Mr. Sinclair rose to a point of order: 1st. Is the Doorkeeper an officer? If he is, is the House organized, until he is elected?

The Chair decided that the House was fully prepared to transact business, when the Speaker was elected. The other officers could be continued pro tem. from day to day.

A message was received from the Senate, asking the concurrence of the House to raise a joint Committee to propose rules for the regulation of the intercourse between the two Houses, to consist of two from the Senate and three from the House.

Mr. Estes, Chairman of the Committee to wait on the Governor, reported that he would communicate with the House at 12½ o'clock.

At half past 12, the Governor, through his acting Secretary, W. R. Richardson, sent a communication to the House of a congratulatory character, and announcing his purpose to address the Houses on Saturday.

The message was ordered to be transmitted to the Senate.

By Mr. Sinclair: Raising a joint Committee of two from the Senate and three from the House, to report immediately, by bill or otherwise, such action as may be necessary to enable the General Assembly of N. C., to adopt the 14th Article, &c.

Mr. Sinclair advocated the adoption of the resolution at some length. He thought that the matter needed the utmost care and wisdom. He thought that they should have the assistance of the Justices of the Supreme Court, in so serious a matter. He did not wish to delay the adoption of the amendment, but his plan, if pursued, would put the matter out of reach of future cavil.

Mr. Seymour opposed the resolution, and concluded by moving to lay it on the table.

The motion was put and carried, when

Mr. Seymour offered the following joint resolution:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has received notification of the passage, by both Houses of the 39th Congress of the United States, at its first session, of the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States, by a constitutional majority of two thirds thereof, in words following: (Here follows the act of Congress passing the Howard amendment.)

Therefore, Resolved, That the said proposed amendment to the Constitution be, and the same is hereby, ratified by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina.

Resolved, That certified copies of the foregoing preamble and resolution be forwarded by the Governor, to the President of the United States, to the presiding officer of the United States Senate, and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives.

Mr. S. advocated the measure in some remarks, and concluded by calling the previous question.

The call was sustained.

The yeas and nays were called upon its passage, and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Ames, Ashworth, Bowman, Barnett, Blair, Barnes, Carson, Candler, Clayton, of Chowan, Clayton, of Transylvania, Cherry, (negro,) Crawford, Cawthorn, (negro,) Dixon, Downing, Ellington, Estes, Foster, Franklin, Forkner, (negro,) Gahagan, Gunter, Gilbert, Graham, Hutchings, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (negro) Hoffman, Horney, Hodgin, Hayes, (negro,) Hinnant, Hendricks, Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Kelly, of Moore, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (negro,) Laflin, Mayo, (negro,) Morrill, Morris, (negro,) Mendenhall, McCanless, Moring, Peck, Pou, Price, (negro,) Parker, Proctor, Pearson, Renfrow, Reynolds, Rea, Rhodes, Smith, of Martin, Stilley, Seymour, Stevens, (negro,) Sweat, (negro,) Snipes, Sinclair, Short, Siegrist, Stanton, Vestal, Vest, Wilson, Williamson, (negro,) Wilkie, Wiswall, Whitley, White, and Waldrop.

NAYS.—Argo, Armstrong, Boddie, Davis, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Gatling, Gibson, Hodnett, High, Humphries, Hawkins, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Moore, Robinson, Smith, of Alleghany, Shaver, Thompson, and Williams.

Mr. Estes introduced a bill, entitled "An act to provide for the qualification of certain officers recently elected."

On motion of Mr. Durham, it was ordered to be printed and laid on the desk of each member, to-morrow morning.

Mr. Durham read a telegram from Gen. Canby, declaring that Mr. W. B. Ferebee, of Camden, was entitled to a seat on the floor.

Mr. F., not being banned by the 14th article, was, on motion, allowed to qualify and take his seat.

By Mr. Sinclair: The following resolutions:

WHEREAS, It is just and right that the voice of the majority, when fairly expressed according to the forms of law in our popular elections, should be respected and obeyed,—it being the tenure and the only tenure by which we hold our own seats, and the only proper source also of any authority whatever in a free and republican government: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, that the Congress of the United States is hereby respectfully and earnestly requested to remove immediately the disabilities imposed by the various acts of the National Legislature, from every man elected to any office in the State of North Carolina, under the existing Constitution.

Be it further resolved by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution be transmitted at once to the proper authorities at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Sinclair said now that the 14th Article was adopted, it was time to show the olive branch. They were strong enough to defend themselves from opposition. Opposition was to be expected. In fact, it was a privilege of a free government. It was time that the voice of the people should be heard. It was true that they could not remove the disabilities, but they should show their spirit of kindness and toleration. He hoped this resolution would not be choked off, but, if it was to be rejected, he desired that the yeas and nays might be called, and that every man might go fully and squarely on record.

Mr. Abbott opposed the resolution, and said, in his remarks, that he first wished to see signs of real repentance. He did not consider it prudent, at this early stage of the session, to go into this ornamental work of clemency, and that sort of thing, but thought they should rather fortify and strengthen themselves. He was as much disposed to kindness, where he thought it would be met in a proper spirit, as any man, and when it would redound to the public good. He moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Sinclair called for the yeas and nays. The call was sustained, and resulted in the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Ames, Ashworth, Bowman, Blair, Barnes, Carson, Candler, Clayton, of Chowan, Dixon, Downing, Ellington, Estes, Foster, Franklin, Forkner, negro, Gahagan, Gunter, Gilbert, Graham, Hutchings, Harris, of Franklin, Hoffman, Horney, Hodgin, Hayes, negro, Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Kinney, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, negro, Laflin, Mayo, negro, Morris, negro, Mendenhall, McCanless, Moring, Peck, Price, negro, Parker, Proctor, Pearson, Proffitt, Robbins, negro, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, Rea, Rhodes, Smith, of Martin, Stilley, Simmons, Seymour, Stevens, negro, Sweat, negro, Siegrist, Vestal, Vest, Wilson, Williamson, negro, Wilkie, Wiswall, White and Waldrop—67.

NAYS.—Argo, Armstrong, Boddie, Barnett, Clayton, of Transylvania, Crawford, Cawthorn, negro, Davis, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Hodnett, High, Humphries, Hinnant, Hawkins, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Long, of Chatham, Moore, Matheson, Pou, Robinson, Smith, of Alleghany, Sinclair, Short, Shaver, Stanton, Thompson, Whitley and Williams—35.

On motion, the House then adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Southern politicians and delegates on their way to the New York Convention are beginning to arrive in Washington, and have been in consultation with Democratic members of Congress and others. Every expression on the part of these Southern delegates points to a most harmonious session of the Democratic Convention, and it is said by gentlemen who ought to know that the platform may be perfected and the nomination made much earlier than is generally anticipated. All of the delegates are in high spirits, and go to New York with great hopes of presenting such a ticket and platform as will be acceptable to the people of the country. A great number of Democratic members to-day obtained leave of absence, and will leave for New York within a day or two.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Louisburg Female College,
FRANKLIN CO., N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.

The success of the institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.

CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $100. Extra Studies moderate. $50 in advance,—remainder at the end of the session.

ADVANTAGES.

An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare; kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample Religious privileges.

For Circulars, containing full particulars, apply to
T. M. JONES,
June 15-tf President.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages it to hope that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassements to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College, in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of the class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

MAYOR'S COURT.—C. Drumm, on a Peace Warrant taken out by Fanny Levy, was required to give bond and security in the sum of $500.

Fanny Levy, charged with keeping a house of ill fame in the City, was fined $10.

Molly Hodges, charged with a violation of chapter 4, section 1, ordinances of the City, was fined $10.

Henrietta Kingsberry, colored, charged with assaulting Lucy Jones, colored, and general disorderly conduct, was sent on to Court.

NEW WHEAT.—Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., of Portsmouth, received, on Thursday, the first consignment of new wheat, this season. It was raised by Mr. J. H. Newell, of Perquimans.

Gov. VANCE has consented to address the people of Norfolk, on his return from the New York Convention.

RUMORS.—It has been rumored, for some days, in this City, that Gov. Holden had sold the Standard office to Gen. Littlefield for the large sum of $30,000. We learn that the Standard, in its issues since the rumor, has made no allusion to it, from which he conclude the rumor was premature. The price was certainly a good one.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court, on Wednesday last, appointed C. B. Root, Esq., of this city, Clerk of the Court, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of E. B. Freeman.

SUPREME COURT.—The following was omitted among the closing decisions published on yesterday, viz:

In State vs. Lewis Joiner, from Craven.—Per Curiam, no error.

FOURTH OF JULY.—We learn that arrangements for the celebration of the Fourth of July, instead of being made by the citizens of Raleigh, were made at the Radical Head Quarters in this city. As we, and the bulk of our citizens, do not belong to that crowd, we shall celebrate the day in our own way. The Sentinel, on the morning of the Fourth, will contain, on its first page, the "Declaration of Independence." We regard that paper as the most appropriate and stinging rebuke to the Revolutionists of the present day, say where to be found. In point of fact, a Radical celebration of the Fourth of July is a prostitution of that day. Our people are mindful and proud of the ancient glories that cluster around the day, but they will not commemorate it, when it ushers in a State government which does not spring from their consent and which is obnoxious and hateful to them.

GEN. GRANT and his family are on a tour to the far West. It is given out that the trip is a private one, and it is likely to be quite private—the masses paying but little attention to the General.

Gov. BROWNLOW has recently pardoned three hundred convicts and released them from the Nashville Penitentiary. He probably concludes that he will need a few more votes for Grant and Colfax, in November next.

FORNEY thinks that the tendency of West Point and Annapolis schooling is toward exclusiveness. He is anxious, no doubt, to have a few cadets and middies of African descent.

GENERAL AMNESTY.—The letter writers assert confidently that the President is preparing his General Amnesty Proclamation.

THE LATE EDMUND B. FREEMAN.

Tribute of Respect.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA, JULY 1st., 1868.

The Attorney General announced that EDMUND B. FREEMAN, Esq., the Clerk of the Court, died at his residence in this City upon yesterday, at about 1 o'clock P. M; and therefore, on behalf of the members of the bar, he offered the following resolutions, and moved that they be spread upon the record:

Resolved, That the death of Edmund B. Freeman is an event deeply and justly lamented by the Court, and the bar; and that in view of this their great loss, they take occasion to express their gratitude for his distinguished official services,—continued for more than the third part of a century with unsurpassed diligence, ability and integrity.

Resolved, That the high qualities displayed by our deceased friend, in the discharge of his official duties, may well be set up before those who are to follow at his desk, as a standard of clerical excellence, the mature fruit of great pains and long experience co-operating with happy natural endowments.

Resolved, That as some evidence of our most sincere sympathy in their great bereavement, a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Chief Justice Pearson then replied as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Bar:—The Judges of the Supreme Court fully concur in your resolutions.

We have known Edmund B. Freeman long and intimately. In his private associations he was kind and agreeable, and in the duties of his office "no one could him excel." He was trained to be a Clerk from infancy, and was fond of the vocation.

He displayed great ability, not only in accuracy of detail, but also in grasping the scope of complicated cases, whilst stating accounts. His integrity and entire fairness in discharging his duties no one ever called in question, and he earned and is entitled to the distinction of having been a "model Clerk."

His attachment to the Old Court was so strong that on several occasions he said to the Judges: "I cannot outlive the Court, or work in any other traces!"

That the Court should have died on the same day with its Clerk, is a co-incidence that is remarkable, and to theorists may form a topic for discussion.

The Court orders that the resolutions be entered upon the records, and that a copy thereof be transmitted to Mr. Freeman's family, as desired."

LET US HAVE PEACE—AND PRESENTS.—The St. Paul Pioneer is very sad over a marked feature in the character of the Radical candidate for the Presidency. It seems that he will take anything anybody gives him. A former editor of the Chicago Tribune, who the Pioneer endorses as "a truthful writer," describes this practice of Gen. Grant's as follows:

"Grant is known to be a very self-absorbed, selfish and grasping man. He takes everything that is presented to him, no matter by whom, or what the supposed consideration. Rich men of the national bank and bondholder stripe have presented him with houses, bonds, and stocks. Sporting men have presented him with horses.—Gamblers have presented him with billiard tables. Dog-fanciers have presented him with pups. Theatre managers constantly present him with dead-head tickets. Harness-makers have presented him with saddles and harness. Carriage makers have presented him with carriages. Russell Jones and Washburne knew his weak point when they presented him with $5,000 of stock in the Chicago Horse Railway Company. Even poor card writers present him with all the visiting cards he uses—for which they get in return letters of thanks in very indifferent English. In fine, 'all is fish that comes to Grant's net.'"

HOLDEN'S EPITAPH.—Mr. Holden has been relieved of the political disabilities he incurred by participating in the late rebellion. The "Governor," so-called, of our sister State has a very black record, and if he could be pardoned by Congress, any other man who will sell himself to the Radicals may aspire to enjoy the same amnesty. He was an original secessionist; his writings were the most malignant and bitter that ever appeared in the South; he worshipped at the shrine of the great South Carolina statesman; and it was not until the cause of the Confederacy began to show signs of decay that his ardor to "spend the last dollar and die in the last ditch" abated. Then he turned upon his victims. Then he forgot that he urged them on. Then he determined to save Holden's bacon. He has received pay for his infamy, but the thirty pieces of silver which Judas got brought no good to him; neither will the place and emolument which this profligate politician has obtained benefit him. The scorn of all honest men is poured out on his head, and the epitaph written upon his tomb stone will be, if justly penned: "Here lies a man who betrayed all who trusted him."—Norfolk Journal.

IS IT POSSIBLE!—We have heard it rumored that the "slate" has been made up for all the offices about here—that an alliance offensive and defensive has been entered into between high contracting parties, by which it is fondly hoped to secure one of the Senatorships for Col. Heaton, the short term in Congress for R. W. King, Esq., Commissioner for Lenoir, member of the Convention not yet finally adjourned, collector of port of Newbern &c., &c., and the collectorship made vacant by sending Mr. King to Congress is to be filled by conferring that post upon Maj. Palmer, for some time past Mayor of the city of Newbern.

This is a neat little arrangement, if the programme is carried out. It leaves a place among the offices of the Atlantic Road, for which Mayor Palmer has been conceded an aspirant, for some time past, for some other hungry aspirant—it makes a change in the Collectorship and possibly in the subordinates—it leaves the mayoralty of the city an open question—and it secures, so it is said, the Presidency of the Atlantic road to E. R. Stanly.

Can it be possible, that the claims of R. P. Lehman, Esq., for Congressional honors, should be overlooked, and his name pushed one side to make way for that of R. W. King, Esq! As old Father Ritchie used to say, Nous Verrons.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

DECEASED.—Col. Philip S. White, well known in Philadelphia and to a considerable extent in the Southern States, died in Philadelphia on Thursday. He was a native of Kentucky, born November 25, 1807. He was very popular as a public speaker, and quite effective. From 1860 to 1863 he was a prothonotary of the District Court of the county of Philadelphia.

A poet was reading one of his effusions to Talleyrand. "Not so loud," said he to the poet, at the same time pointing to a man yawning in the street, "he hears you!"

An Irishman remarked of a lady who had been very kind to him, "Be dad, she's a perfect gintleman."

For the Sentinel.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

AN OUTSIDE VIEW.

Several persons attended Commencement this year at Trinity, neither as friends nor enemies of the Institution, but as observers at large, looking for merits and defects with equal zeal, quite as ready to censure as to praise, and expecting to do some of both. As these observers are wise, unprejudiced and generally immaculate as all Commencement reporters are, their conclusions herein presented will, of course, be vastly important to the public, and will forever fix the destiny of the College aforesaid.

1. As to the ability of the Trustees and Faculty, the course of study, and the scholarship actually attained, the public has decided already. They have taken rank with the other Institutions of the country, and the man who impugns them convicts him self of ignorance or prejudice. Verbum sat.

2. The first thing that forcibly strikes a stranger is, that more accommodations for visitors are needed. It is the fashion to go to Trinity Commencement; perhaps no place in the State commands half so many persons from a distance, and I know not where, in this country, one would find such an assembly of elegantly dressed, fashionable people. This being the case, the accommodations are defective both in quantity and quality. Improvement is demanded. More hotels must be built, and a little more latitude must be allowed. People go to Commencement for enjoyment, to have a good time generally, but at Trinity every thing must be very decorous and orthodox, or one of those polished iron-nerved Marshals will most winningly inform you that—you must behave yourself. A Trinity Commencement is very elegant, very beautiful, but a little too moral. A little wildness is relished by the best of people, and nearly all would pleasantly remember some small deviations on such occasions. I noticed more than one time at the party, when a couple had found some cosy corner in the halls or library, and were becoming intimately interesting to each other, just then an oily Manager would whisper something to the gentleman, that very soon sent the interesting pair into the general circulation. Give us more and better accommodations, and a little more license, and we will all go to Trinity Commencement.

3. The exercises were all interesting. There was no failure. The speaking was speaking, not declamation. Every body thought the whole programme was good enough, and ought not to be better. It was in every sense as good as can be found any where. That matter is settled.

4. The moral tone and general spirit are to me incomprehensible. Every student is tenaciously in earnest; a little too much so, I think. I was in the very heart of the matter, and am nearly positive that no student used any profane language, or touched a drop of strong drink, or entered into any other small deviltment, so common, and sometimes so graceful, in young men. Every one was full of life and seemingly very happy, but I do not see the means by which all should be disciplined into such moral and social punctilio. At all events, such is Trinity, and those who like such life, can there find it in perfection.

5. Trinity is strong in real College ability, leads the State in numbers very considerably, owes no money, it is said, and all this she knows very well. For years she was second, and has endured more than a just amount of jibes and depreciation; now she is in danger of cherishing the same spirit of which she has complained in others. This spirit is not desirable. Nearly all who may patronize Trinity will be pleased. Her students do wondrously well, and her course is upward and onward. But a kind feeling among all the educated, and between all institutions, is eminently desirable. OBSERVER.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.

JACKSON, MISS., July 2, P. M.

Forty-seven, out of sixty-one counties, return a majority against the Constitution of 13,966. Four of the remaining counties will return a majority for the Constitution.

No case of violence has yet been reported, from any portion of the State, during the progress of the election.

This county, with a registered black majority of 1,700, gave but 829 Radical majority. Lowndes county, with a registered black majority of 3,000, returns 1,300 Radical majority.

THE APPROACHING DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

NEW YORK July 2, M.

The delegates are fast arriving. A meeting of the general Committee of soldiers and sailors was held last night. A majority of them favor Hancock, but some support Blair.

It is stated that Hendricks will decline being a candidate, in favor of Pendleton. It is rumored that there is a combination between Pennsylvania, New York and New England to beat Pendleton. Doolittle is mentioned favorably for Vice-President.

W. A. Eaton, of Hartford, will probably be temporary, and Richardson, of Illinois, permanent Chairman.

Thurman, of Ohio, with a large number of Pendletonians, has arrived.

Judge Woodward is elected Chairman of the Pennsylvania delegation.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 2, M.

The Committee of Ways and Means will report a bill to tax government bonds ten per cent.

Action on the nomination of Evarts as Attorney General has been further postponed by the Judiciary Committee.

The members of Congress are becoming very anxious to adjourn, and will probably do so, without touching the finances.

There are no indications of the passage of Sherman's funding bill.

Several Treasury Clerks were discharged, yesterday, there being no appropriations for their pay.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 2, P. M.

SENATE.—A Joint resolution passed, admitting six Japanese youths to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

A bill was introduced, convening the next session of Congress on the third Monday in November.

A. S. Welch, the Florida Senator, was seated.

The Pacific Rail Road matters were discussed at great length.

A bill was reported giving the ladies of the Mount Vernon Association seven thousand dollars.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Ways and Means Committee introduced a resolution for the relief of rum exporters.

Butler desired leave to offer a bill, equalizing taxation and funding the public debt. Objection.

The Ways and Means Committee reported a bill taxing the interest on Bonds. Ordered to be printed.

The Reconstruction Committee reported a bill, dividing Texas into two States. Ordered to be printed.

After disposing of several Executive communications of no general importance, the House considered the Senate amendments to the Civil Appropriations.

Without conclusion, adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, July 2, P. M.

The object of convening Congress, on the third Monday in November, is to have a recess, instead of an adjournment, to prevent removals by the President.

Boutwell objects to the bill dividing Texas.

The Texas delegation to the National Convention request the President to remove Gen. Reynolds.

Col. Graham will probably succeed Reynolds.

Twenty cars left here for New York, for the Convention, last night. It was necessary to divide into two trains at Baltimore.

The Southern delegates passed here in good health and spirits. Very lengthy dispatches from New York give no reliable indications of the result.

FROM NEW ORLEANS—LEGISLATURE.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2, P. M.

The military are still under arms, to-day, though much less excitement is apparent.

The resolution, adopted in the Senate, on yesterday, that the roll be called, as furnished by the Military Commander, and that those, who can take the Constitutional oath, be admitted, appears on the minutes as simply that the roll be called, omitting the words, "by the Military Commander," which are in the resolution, as adopted.

Objection was made, but was checked off by the previous question.

A joint resolution, ratifying the 14th. amendment, was adopted.

Twelve Democratic members in the House were sworn in to-day.

Another effort to have the House organized, according to the roll of the Commanding General, failed to-day. Several Democrats, presenting themselves to be sworn in, were informed that their seats were contested. They were previously ignorant of the fact.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,881,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,625,269; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,919-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,387.64, making a grand total of $797,307 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1868.

[From the Banner of the South.]

THE UNSEEN BATTLEFIELD

There is an unseen battle-field
In every human breast,
Where two opposing forces meet,
But where they soldier rest.

The field is veiled from mortal sight,
'Tis only seen by One,
Who Knows alone where victory lies,
When each day's work is done.

One army clusters strong and fierce,
Their chief of demon form,
His brow is like the thunder cloud,
His voice the bursting storm.

His captains are the passions fierce
Whose troops watch night and day,
Swift to detect the weakest points,
And thirsting for the fray.

Contending with this mighty force,
Is but a little band,
Yet there, with an unyielding front,
The warriors firmly stand.

Their leader is of God-like form,
Of countenance serene,
And glowing on his naked breast,
A simple Cross is seen.

His captains are the Virtues fair,
Beneath that wondrous sign,
They fear no danger, for they feel
A courage all divine.

They feel it speaks a glorious truth,
A truth as great as sure,
That to be victors they must learn
To love—confide—endure.

And when they win that battlefield,
Past toil is all forgot;
The plain where battle once had reigned
Becomes a beloved spot.

A spot where flowers of joy and peace
Spring from the fertile sod,
And breathe the perfume of their praise,
On every breeze, to God.

THE WIFE.

Here is the best tribute to a true woman we ever read:

"Only let a woman be sure she is precious to her husband—not useful, not valuable, and not convenient simply, but lovely and beloved; let her be the recipient of his polite and hearty attentions; let her feel that her cares and love are noticed, appreciated and returned; let her opinion be asked, her approval sought, and her judgment respected in matters with which she is cognizant; in short let her only be loved, honored and cherished, in fulfillment of the marriage vow, and she will be to her husband, her children and society a well-spring of happiness. She will bear pain and toil and anxiety, for her husband's love to her is a tower and fortress. Shielded and sheltered therein, adversity will have lost its sting. She may suffer, but sympathy will dull the edge of sorrow.

A house with love in it—and by love I mean love expressed in word, and looks, and deeds, for I have not a spark of faith in love that never crops out—is to a house without love as a person to a machine: one is life, the other mechanism—the beloved woman may have bread just as light, a house just as tidy as the other, but the latter has a spring of beauty about her, a joyousness, a penetrating brightness, to which the former is an entire stranger. The deep happiness of her heart shines out in her face. She gleams all over. It is airy and graceful, and warm, and welcoming with her presence; she is full of devices and plots, and sweet surprises for her husband and family. She has never done with the romance and poetry of life. She herself is a lyric poem, setting herself to all pure and gracious melodies. Humble household ways and duties have for her a golden significance. The prize makes her calling high; and the end sanctifies the means—"Love is Heaven, and Heaven is love."

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
